

Sisters in Law

Career Choices for Nigerian Women Lawyers

If you could speak to some of the most impressive women lawyers in Nigeria what would you ask them?

In this book you will be able to read about their careers, what is most important to them, how they came to be lawyers and what advice they would give to young lawyers starting out at the beginning of their legal careers.

You will also find information on how to qualify as a legal practitioner in Nigeria, and the various careers open to women lawyers.

Intended for law students and young women lawyers, Sisters in Law will also appeal to anyone who is interested in Nigeria's women lawyers and legal system.

BOMA OZOBIA and ELIZABETH CRUICKSHANK met in London and for several years have represented the Association of Women Solicitors before writing this book. Both are qualified solicitors of the Supreme Court of England and Wales and Boma has also been admitted to the Nigerian Bar.

"I recommend "Sisters in Law" as a good resource book for mentoring young women coming into the profession."

Honourable Justice Elsie Thompson,
FIDA Regional Vice President (Africa)
